After the success of last year’s spring social, ΦΑΘ–ΑΡ expanded our History Jeopardy theme party for 2012.

Hosted at the Ft. Douglas Military History Museum, students had opportunities to meet faculty members and enjoy free food, music, and join the now infamous “History Jeopardy” competition.

After many grueling rounds of grueling competition, one team managed to seize control of the game and earn their place as champions of history trivia.

Therefore we would like to give all due credit to the winners:

Mallory Colby
Sean Goodell

Jennifer Willoughby
Ginger Smoak
Jess Malin

Chad Brown
Trevor Wiggins

Phi Alpha Theta – Alpha Rho would like to thank all the faculty, staff and students who attended the Spring Social and made it such a success.
Call for Papers

Historia: the Alpha Rho Papers is a yearly history journal published by Phi Alpha Theta – Alpha Rho, the University of Utah’s chapter of the National History Honors Society.

All undergraduates, graduate students, alumni, and faculty from Utah institutions of higher learning are encouraged to submit papers and book reviews of historical significance to the journal for publication.\(^1\) Accepted articles will be available to the public both online at epubs.utah.edu and through a print version available for purchase through the journal’s website or through the Marriot Library at the University of Utah.

The Journal will have the following sections:

- Undergraduate Papers: Papers from all levels freshmen to seniors.
- Graduate Papers: Both Master’s and PhD students are represented in this section.
- History Professionals: Faculty and those who work in history professions are invited
- Book Reviews

Historia: the Alpha Rho Papers seeks to encourage and promote history scholarship on all academic levels; therefore, we seek to publish quality papers from graduate students, upper-classmen, and lower-classmen. We evaluate papers by taking into account the level of academic experience the student-writer has attained.

To submit your abstract visit: journal.phi-alpha-theta-alpha-rho.org

\(^1\) As historians we cover a wide array of topic of human interest, including social, political, economic and technological issues. Historical context for the purpose of this journal is very inclusive.
