NATIONAL ADVISORY BOARD

Irwin Altman
Distinguished Professor of Psychology and Professor of Family and Consumer Studies, University of Utah.

Ann Laquer Estin
Professor of Law, University of Iowa College of Law.

Marsha Garrison
Professor of Law, Brooklyn Law School.

Carl E. Schneider
Professor of Law; Chauncy Stillman Professor for Ethics, Morality and the Practice of Law; Professor of Internal Medicine, University of Michigan.

Elizabeth S. Scott
Harold R. Medina Professor of Law, Columbia Law School.

Debora L. Threedy
Professor of Law, University of Utah.

Lynn D. Wardle
Professor of Law, J. Reuben Clark School of Law, Brigham Young University; Former President of the International Society of Family Law.

Cathleen D. Zick
Professor, Department of Family and Consumer Studies, University of Utah.
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword ................................................................................................................................. vi

ARTICLES

Cycles of Juvenile Justice: An Introduction to the Utah Criminal Justice Center Distinguished Lecture
Erik Luna ................................................................................................................................. 1

Unmitigated Punishment: Adolescent Criminal
Responsibility and LWOP Sentences
Barry C. Feld ........................................................................................................................ 11

The Fall of Marital Family Stability and the Rise of Juvenile Delinquency
Lynn D. Wardle .................................................................................................................. 83

Images of the “Socially Disinherited”:
Inner-City Youth in Rap Music
Theresa A. Martinez ............................................................................................................. 111

Utah Youth Suicide Study:
Evidence-based Suicide Prevention for Juvenile Offenders
Michelle A. Moskos, Sarah R. Halbern, Steve Alder, Han Kim,
Doug Gray ........................................................................................................................... 127

An Interpersonal-Developmental Perspective
on Juvenile Justice Systems
Paul Florsheim and Tim Fowles ......................................................................................... 147

Recreating Relationships: The Interpersonal Implications of Restorative Justice for Juvenile Offenders and Their Victims
Barton Poulson ..................................................................................................................... 161

State v. Mohi—State Sanctioned Abuse?
Deborah Katz Levi ............................................................................................................... 173
CASE NOTE

Ledbetter v. Goodyear: The U.S. Supreme Court Rubs Salt in Plaintiffs' Disparate Pay Title VII Wounds
Adam L. Grundvig................................................................. 199

STATUTE NOTE

Deserted in Deseret: How Utah's Emancipation Statute is Saving Polygamist Runaways and Queer Homeless Youths
T. Christopher Wharton..................................................... 213

STUDY NOTES

My Nephew's Sanctuary: Hurdles to Guardianship of Collateral Refugee Minors in Utah
Jessica A. Andrew............................................................... 223

Expanding the Definition of FAPE and NCLB: Why Courts Give FAPE the Slip and Leave it Swimming in a Sea of Alphabet Soup
Robin Bucaria................................................................. 237

A Day Late & A Dollar Short: Should Utah's Unmarried Dads Get One More Chance to Claim Their Newborns?
Brent J. Clayton............................................................... 249

A Step in the Right Direction: Why Utah's Medicaid and CHIP Programs Should Continue to Cover Children with Mental Illness
April Ellis................................................................. 267
FOREWORD

The University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law is pleased to publish eight contributions from Cycles of Juvenile Justice. This symposium was jointly sponsored by the Utah Criminal Justice Center, the University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law, and its Journal of Law & Family Studies (JLFS) in March 2007, in Salt Lake City, Utah. Because JLFS is a multi-disciplinary journal focusing on family law issues and policy, the articles reflect our commitment to publishing works from various fields.

We hope you enjoy this and future issues.

Linda F. Smith
Faculty Advisor to JLFS and Professor of Law

Editorial Board
Journal of Law & Family Studies
Matheson, Jr., Scott M., Professor of Law
McConnell, Michael W., Presidential Professor of Law and U.S. Court of Appeals Judge
McCormack, Wayne, Professor of Law
McLaughlin, Nancy Assaf, Professor of Law
McLeese, Karen L., Director, Alumni Relations and Annual Giving
Medwed, Daniel S., Associate Professor of Law
Mitchell, Bonnie L., Clinical Professor of Law
Morris, John K., General Counsel and Professor of Law
Poulter, Susan R., Professor of Law Emerita
Reitze Jr., Arnold W., Professor of Law
Reusch, Rita T., Director, S.J. Quinney Law Library and Computing Services and Professor of Law
Richards, William R., Clinical Professor of Law
Ristroph, Alice, Associate Professor of Law
Schmid, Robert L., Professor Emeritus of Law
Skibine, Alexander Tallchief, S.J. Quinney Professor of Law
Smith, Linda F., Professor of Law
Spurgeon, Edward D., Clinical Professor of Law
Tehranian, John, Professor of Law
Whytock, Christopher A., Associate Professor of Law
Wildermuth, Amy J., Associate Professor of Law
Young, Michael K., President, University of Utah and Professor of Law

S.J. QUINNEY LAW LIBRARY

Faculty

Darais, Suzanne, Head of Information Technical Services and Adjunct, Professor of Law
Logan, William, Assistant Librarian and Adjunct Professor of Law
Stephenson, Linda, Head of Information Access Services and Adjunct Professor of Law
Warthen, R. Lee, Assistant Director, Head of Collection Building and Maintenance, and Adjunct Professor of Law
JOURNAL OF LAW & FAMILY STUDIES

VOLUME 10 No. 1 2007

SUBSCRIPTIONS: United States and possessions, $25.00 per year; foreign, $30.00 (postage included). If a subscription is to be discontinued at expiration, notice should be sent by subscriber; otherwise, it will be renewed on an annual basis.

ISSUES & REPRINTS: Single issues and back issues are available only from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1285 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14209-1987. Orders may also be placed by calling Hein at (800) 828-7571, via telefax at (716) 883-8100, or e-mail: order@wshein.com. Back issues can also be found in electronic format for your research needs on HeinOnline: http://heinonline.org/. Reprints are available from Joe Christensen, Inc., 1540 Adams St., Lincoln, NE 68521 (800) 228-5030, e-mail: sales@christensen.com. Make checks payable to Journal of Law & Family Studies. The Journal of Land Resources & Environmental Law is also available from this office; pricing is the same as for JLFS.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS: The editors of the Journal of Law & Family Studies wish to express their gratitude to the following: The University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law, the JLFS Advisory Board, and the Journal Alumni Association for their support; Professor Linda F. Smith, faculty advisor and the S.J. Quinney College of Law faculty and staff. The Journal of Law & Family Studies (JLFS) is published twice yearly by the University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law, Salt Lake City, Utah 84112.

Printed in the United States of America by Joe Christensen, Inc.